Interim Chief Executive Officer (Maternity Cover)

Description

Job Title: Interim Chief Executive Officer (Maternity Cover)
Location: London, UK (Hybrid working available)
Duration: 9–12 months (Fixed-term contract)
Start Date: 1st July 2025
Salary: Competitive, based on experience

About the Organisation

We are a respected, high-impact international charity headquartered in London, working across multiple continents to tackle some of the world's most pressing humanitarian and development challenges. With a focus on health, education, climate resilience, gender equality, we deliver programmes in partnership with governments, communities, and local NGOs.

As our Chief Executive Officer prepares for maternity leave, we are seeking an Interim CEO to lead the organisation through a critical period, maintaining momentum on strategic initiatives, safeguarding operational effectiveness, and representing the charity to key external stakeholders.

Role Overview

The Interim CEO will be accountable to the Board of Trustees and will lead the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) in the delivery of the organisation's strategy, operations, and mission. You will be a visible and values-driven leader, guiding the organisation through a period of continuity and stability while ensuring ongoing responsiveness to a dynamic external environment.

Responsibilities

Key Responsibilities

- Provide strategic and operational leadership of the charity, maintaining alignment with the long-term mission and strategic plan.

- Act as the chief ambassador and spokesperson, representing the charity with donors, government bodies, partners, and the media.

- Ensure continued delivery of high-quality programmes across international regions, in partnership with in-country teams and stakeholders.

- Lead the Senior Leadership Team, fostering a culture of accountability, inclusion, and performance.

- Oversee key fundraising and partnership efforts, working with the Development team to secure institutional and philanthropic funding.
